

RACIAL EQUITY LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Overcoming Racism: Awakening, Woke, Taking Command

DETAILS

MONDAY
FEBRUARY 25TH
8 am - 5 pm

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

The institute is designed to empower leadership teams to sharpen their critical consciousness and their ability to drive real, sustainable, systemic change in their organizations.

FEATURES

- Deepening participants' understanding of their own racial identity and its implications on their leadership and decision-making
- Learning from student voices
- Gaining insight from educational leaders who have "taken command"
- Applying practical tools to help drive change in their organization
- Working with a facilitator to develop or refine action plans to address a challenge in the team's local setting (this includes a pre- and post-meeting in addition to work during the Institute)

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

K-12 and higher education leadership teams who have made a commitment and undertaken actions to advance educational equity. The team should at least include a representative of the governing body, executive team, faculty leaders and team working on equity.

WHAT IS THE COST?

$1,100 per team of four; $50/person for additional team members. Partial and full scholarships available if needed.
