2025

Exclusively Available for
Locally-organized Group Gatherings

two excellent keynote speakers via Zoom

Jenna Grey Eagle

Mrs. Grey Eagle speaks to the lived experience of doing racial equity work in rural areas, where people often feel left out of national conversations.

Dr. Ron Ferguson

Dr. Ferguson uses a mixture of presentation and group activity to encourage a culture of inclusion and belonging in our communities.

facilitated by

Eryn Gee Killough, M.Ed.
Mrs. Killough works to overcome the social, cultural and economic challenges that racialized individuals face as they are impacted by larger cultural systems.

HOST YOUR OWN LOCAL EVENT

Join FREC Greater Minnesota Partnership's 2025 Racial Equity Conference by hosting your own community gathering (ie: a conversational lunch, additional speakers, workshops, etc.). We will work with you to make this feasible for your community!

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF HOSTS

Community Satellite Sites commit to the following:

1. Finding an event venue to view the Zoom session
2. Gathering participants/taking registrations
3. Planning some type of interactive session at your local site after the morning session is finished

Local communities determine the scope of local events!

SUPPORT

The FREC Greater Minnesota Partnership will support your community efforts with a tool kit on how to host your satellite event. Support may include activity ideas, funding, speaker suggestions, technical support, etc. Financial assistance may be available.
